Welcome to IMPACT...

Gratitude...

"I have been in your hospital several times and during my last stay the emergency department was so great, everything moved quickly and efficiently. If I ever have to be in a hospital again, I want it to be at Northridge, the care is wonderful"

~Janet,

16th Annual

"Helping Hands" Holiday Jam

The holidays arrived a couple of weeks early at Northridge Hospital! In the spirit of Hello humankindness, Santa arrived just in time for the 16th Annual "Helping Hands" Holiday Jam on Friday, December 9. He was welcomed by more than 325 children between the ages of seven and ten. The students in attendance were children from four local Title 1 Elementary Schools in the San Fernando Valley area. The day was perfect and children walked around with smiles larger than life. The children enjoyed playing carnival games, getting their faces painted, playing video games and best of all visiting with Santa!

Just one of the wonderful comments we heard from the children on this special day, "I am so lucky we got to come here today, this is the best day ever. I even got the best present— a Monopoly board game, that is my favorite game!"

One of the teachers from the school said "Thank you so much for choosing our school. Our children look forward to this day, and frankly for us teachers, it is an incentive to motivate our children to work hard everyday!"
