

Gratitude...

"Thank you to the wonderful doctor and nurses at the PICU. I highly recommend Northridge Hospital's PICU, they have amazing staff. Even when I was tired and frustrated, the nurse remained calm and professional. My baby and I are grateful!"

Steppin' Out Gala Raises $380,000!

In Photos L-R: (1) Jackie Lacey, LA District Attorney, "2019 Celebration of Hope" Honoree; (2) Michael Soltero, MD; Steven Cantamout, MD; Asher Taban, MD; Zouheir Elias, MD; Grace Leland; Moufid Neme, MD, "2019 Physician Appreciation" Honoree; Paul Watkins, President & CEO; (3) SPALSH! Band.

A huge thank you to our hospital administration, staff, physicians, Board Members, medical groups, sponsors, donors and volunteers who supported this year's Steppin' Out Gala at the Four Seasons Hotel on Saturday, October 12, 2019. It was an exciting evening, with 450 guests in attendance.

This year's event raised $380,000 which will benefit the purchase of new echo cardio ultrasound machines for our Medical Center.

Proudly honoring two amazing members of our community who have had a significant impact on Dignity Health – Northridge Hospital Medical Center. This year's recipient of the 2019 "Celebration of Hope" award was Los Angeles District Attorney Jackie Lacey. A Los Angeles native, she has spent most of her professional life as a prosecutor, manager, and executive in the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office.

Also being honored is Nephrologist, Moufid Neme, MD, this year's recipient of the "Grace Leland Physician Appreciation" award. Throughout his distinguished 24-year career with Northridge Hospital, he has provided crucial support for the hospital, significantly contributing to the care of his patients and our community.
